

THE LITTLE GALLERY APPLICATION FORM

The Little Gallery is named in honour of Jean Thomas who set up the first public gallery on the north-west coast in 1966, and named it The Little Gallery. Jean Thomas' vision for the Gallery was as a centre for community arts and activities that promoted the work of emerging and established Tasmanian artists alongside national and international artists.

MISSION AND AIMS

MISSION STATEMENT: The Devonport Regional Gallery will provide an exhibition program and collection of the highest standard for the benefit of community pleasure and participation and to promote inspiration and knowledge for our diverse audiences.

The Devonport Regional Gallery aims to enhance public understanding and enjoyment of visual art, craft and design through the delivery of a high quality and engaging exhibition, education and events program that promotes and interprets the work of Tasmanian arts practitioners in a national context.

The Little Gallery is open to emerging Tasmanian artists whose projects are innovative and thought provoking and address the Gallery's mission and aims.

It is preferable that projects have not been shown before and are recent (not more than 12 months old).
